Disqualification

The Rio Blanco County Sheriff's Office has hiring standards that could be the basis for your removal from the hiring process. Issues with misconduct, such as employment history, illegal drug use, criminal activity, arrest or conviction maybe examples of disqualification. Deliberate misstatements or omissions can and often will result in your application being removed from the hiring process, regardless of the nature or reason for the misstatements/omissions. The number one reason applicants "fail" background investigations is because they deliberately withhold or misrepresent relevant information to the prospective employer.

You may also be asked questions about your background as it relates to: theft from employers; commission of undetected crimes; falsification of application or other documents; job terminations or disciplinary actions; violent behavior; drug/alcohol use; bribery; financial history; other issues related to ethics.

Many of the questions have more than one part and some will require you to write an explanation. If you run out of room on the lines provided, please go to the last page of this document and write the question number and continue with your explanation. If you need further room, use the back of the last page.

Please read the whole question, and answer all parts.
