Agricultural buildings are allowed to be constructed in Rio Blanco County without a Building Permit or Inspections, if the Use and the proposed location of the Building meet all applicable requirements of the Rio Blanco County Land Use Resolution.

Please submit a site plan with this application showing the proposed location of the new Building and the following information:

1. Location of easements and utilities. If there are none, please state so.
2. Distances (in feet) between your proposed building and your well/cistern, septic systems, and other structures and water features. If there are none, please state so.
3. Show that the proposed building meets required setback requirements; typically this will be 30' front, 10' at the sides and back from the property line and 10' from other buildings of different uses.
4. Show all county roads or highways adjacent to your property.

After the signed application and site plan have been submitted and reviewed, you will be notified as to whether additional information is required or that your application has been approved.

Terms and Conditions

1. Agricultural Buildings must only be used for agricultural purposes as defined in the Rio Blanco Building Code; any other Use of the Building has not been approved.
2. Agricultural Buildings are not exempt from Rio Blanco County Use Tax and Property Tax.
3. Rio Blanco County assumes no responsibility for agricultural buildings. It is the owner's responsibility to construct the Building to comply with the requirements of the Rio Blanco County Building Code.
